*THANKS also To John Rowe from Ashburton Sports,
Neil from Rusty Dog
and Dave from Stirlings Richmond for pictures supplied in the making of this catalogue*

The "Fatty" From Down South

Dave Heyward of Stirlings Richmond Proshops had a magic day fishing recently.

"It was just one of those perfect mid-winter days - just minutes before I caught this whopper, a 70lb kingi was landed and released right near us".

"We were fishing in 70m of water around D'urville Island at the top of the South Island".

"Fishing for kingi's, just about every time that we put down a jig, a kingi hit it and we could have taken home many more than the three smaller ones that we caught at the beginning".

"A lot of our fish were around 50lb, but this particular fish was 83lb and took about 15-20 minutes to land".

"I was using a Shimano T Curve 200 rod, 24kg, with 50lb braid and a bite pink and silver 450gram jig. Definitely a fishing day of a lifetime for me". Have you ever seen a "fatter" kingi?

"fatty" the Kingfish

FIORDLAND - NEW ZEALAND'S FINAL FRONTIER.

Unlike Captain James T Kirk - Russell Wisely's final Frontier is Fiordland which harks back to the days of old with plenty of great fishing and hunting on the shores of Lake Te Anau. Russell and Robyn Wisely, together with first Lieutenant Linda Matheson run the ship (oops, shop) "Fiordland Frontier Supplies". It's a hands on operation, with friendly, helpful local service and plenty of stock in a large open plan space. Prices are aimed at the local market too - no alien tourist prices here! Russell and Robyn saw a need for a store to cater for local fishermen, hunters and outdoor enthusiasts. "Joining the F&S Proshop group means better prices, promotion and selection" says Russell. Frankly, it was a logical move Captain!
